The New Nation	Unit 2B
Washington's Foreign Policy

Directions: After reading the US position below, look at the chart and the problems we faced as a new nation. Decide what the best course of action would be and justify your response. We will complete the last column together.

US Position: We are a new, relatively “weak” nation. We want to gain respect of other more powerful nations, but also do not want to get attacked or taken over by larger, wealthier, and more powerful nations.

Foreign Country	Problems the US has with them...	The action YOU recommend	Justification: why did you choose this action?	Actual Outcome
France	France is at war with Britain. France expects us to ally with them, since they allied with us during the American Revolution. Jefferson wanted the USA to support France and their fight for liberty. Hamilton wanted to support Britain in order to avoid angering our largest trading partner.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Ally with France</li> <li>○ Don't Ally with France</li> </ul>		Washington sets an important foreign policy precedent by issuing the _____, keeping the US _____. Washington believed that America was _____ to involve itself in a European war. Jefferson _____ his _____ post. America remained _____ in European affairs from 1793 to 1898.
