

(Unit 2) The Constitution

across

- 4. principle that the law applies to everyone, even those who govern
- 7. sum of money used as a security deposit to ensure that an accused person returns for his or her trial
- 8. banning of printed materials or films due to alarming or offensive ideas
- 11. singling out an individual as a suspect due to appearance of ethnicity
- 15. split of authority among the legislative, executive, and judicial branches
- 20. the right to vote
- 21. rights of full citizenship and equality under the law
- 23. spoken untruths that are harmful to someone's reputation
- 24. powers shared by the state and federal governments
- 25. formal charge by a grand jury
- 27. powers that the Constitution does not give the nation government that are kept by the states
- 28. any change in the Constitution
- 29. opening section of the Constitution
- 30. unfair treatment based on prejudice against a certain group

down

- 1. system in which each branch of government is able to check, or restrain, the power of the others
- 2. social separation of the races
- 3. procedures established by law and guaranteed by the Constitution
- 5. branch of government that carries out the laws
- 6. branch of government that interprets the laws
- 9. notion that power lies with the people
- 10. right of government to take private property for public use
- 12. lawmaking branch of government
- 13. group of citizens that decides whether there is sufficient evidence to accuse someone of a crime
- 14. programs intended to make up for past discrimination by helping minority groups and women gain access to jobs and opportunities
- 16. written untruths that are harmful to someone's reputation
- 17. powers that Congress has that are specifically listed in the Constitution
- 18. sum of money required of voters before they are permitted to cast a ballot
- 19. freedoms to think and act without government interference or fear of unfair legal treatment
- 22. putting someone on trial for a crime of which he was previously acquitted
- 26. formal request for government action